Son,

Thanks for coming over to help us with our computers. Mine is still working well. Maybe a microsecond slower with the wifi instead of the ethernet connection. By the way, I just now spotted your OK To Update list on the wall!!

Thanks for that too.

I went over to Troy's and Bruce's today to hang a new porch light. I looked at Troy's computer problem and found the wi-fi disabled. I managed to enable it, although the screen darkens, and switches to an annoying screensaver after about 15 seconds of inactivity.

Anyway, I spoofed Troy with a "popup" of an unsavory site and accused him of visiting all sorts of lewd sites which he did not categorically deny, grabbed the computer and thanked me as he deleted the site. Mean trick.

Thanks again for coming over yesterday. It was good to see you and Katie.

Love, Dad

The attorney I trusted to assist in receiving severance from Charles River Development, which I think is now State Street, who had no conflict of interest with my biological Dad... and Roach suggested I call Johnson and Jensen if I were to file a civil suit.

This was after my biological Dad tried to suggest a civil suit against Joe's Bar and Grille sometime right around September 20th of 2017... and my biological Dad spent so long yelling at me as if I was guilty that video evidence in my defense was deleted...

My biological Dad and any related co-conspirator attempt to make civil suits using me as collateral or against me to guardianship me after trying to simultaneously frame me as guilty... so they may remove evidence and control suits with me as collateral...

While attempting to cause the suits to be at or above the 5th District level... because the Honorable Larry J. McKinney deadlocked my biological Dad after Troy's affidavit. Because the Honorable Larry J. McKinney's ruling aligned with me, and Title VII.

My biological Dad started defaming and framing Troy Davis as well as attempting to turn me against Sighting, McKinney, and Davis, as if the intolerable bad behaviors of my biological Dad were simply "jokes" though they may have had negative effects. [As early as 2012, but continuing, even referring to Troy Davis as a "drug addict" when he was not.]

IN MEMORIAM

Hon. Larry J. McKinney

District Judge, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana

by Tim A. Baker

Tim A. Baker is a U.S. magistrate judge for the Southern District of Indiana. He clerked for Judge Larry J. McKinney from 1989 to 1991. This article is reprinted with the permission of the Circuit Rider. © 2018. Timothy Baker. All Rights Reserved.

Friend. Mentor. Judge. Family man. Role model. Humorist. No single word adequately describes Judge Larry J. McKinney, who died on Sept. 20, 2017. His unexpected passing at age 73 leaves a void that will never truly be filled.

McKinney was born on the Fourth of July in 1944, in South Bend, Ind. "I was 12 years old before I finally realized that my dad wasn't telling me the truth when he told me all that celebration was just for me," McKinney said in an interview a few weeks before his death.¹ A stellar Indiana trial court judge who served as U.S. district judge for the Southern District of Indiana for 30 years, McKinney remained a humble man known as much for his quick wit and sense of humor as his intellect and work ethic.

McKinney graduated from South Bend John Adams High School in 1962. It was during this time that McKinney got his first taste of power, when he was assigned to introduce a speaker to the student body. After the speaker was done, it dawned on McKinney that none of the 1,500 students in attendance, or the teachers or the principal, could leave until he dismissed them. McKinney recounted that he walked "slowly" over to the microphone. "I took five minutes to summarize his points and then dismissed everyone. And you should have seen them. I had kids sitting on the edge of their seats in the front row just waiting to race to their classes. And the longer and the more they bent over and the more inertia taking them toward the door, the longer my summation took. I really enjoyed that," McKinney said with a familiar twinkle in his eye.

Following high school, McKinney attended MacMurray College in Illinois, where he met his wife Carole. He asked her to marry him on their graduation day in 1966, and they enjoyed 51 years of marriage until his death. Following graduation from MacMurray, McKinney attended Indiana University (IU) Mauer School of Law in Bloomington, and Carole pursued a graduate degree at IU in psychology. Though there were no lawyers in his family, McKinney said he was drawn to the law because of the esteem in which lawyers were held in their communities and because being a lawyer gave him the opportunity to help others.

Upon his graduation in 1969, McKinney accepted a position with the Indiana Attorney General's Office for $7,200 per year. The McKinneys' lean earnings left little room for frolic. "I kept a journal of our expenses one year," McKinney said. "Our entire entertainment expenses for one month was 35 cents. It was for a 25-cent Dairy Queen for me and a dime Dairy Queen for Carole."

The McKinneys' financial outlook improved over time, if slowly. McKinney opened a private law practice, Rogers & McKinney, with Charlie Rogers in Edinburg, south of Indianapolis. The law firm began inauspiciously. McKinney and Rogers made a sign for their law firm they were very proud of—if only briefly. "Then a puff of wind came along and just blew that thing down in 30 seconds," McKinney said. "I never did put it back up. I've still got that sign at home. I was just quite proud of the sign that lasted 30 seconds." After painting and wallpapering his new law office, McKinney landed his first client. Except it wasn't legal work the man wanted; he asked McKinney to remodel his kitchen. "I thought to myself, this is another one of life's crossroads," McKinney joked.

In 1974, McKinney joined forces with Jim Sargent in Greenwood, Ind., at Sargent and McKinney. Around this time, McKinney had mentioned an interest in becoming a judge to the heir-apparent to the Johnson County Circuit Court judge. Serendipity resulted in that person opting to remain in private practice. McKinney jumped in, won the Republican primary, defeated his World War II hero Democrat opponent, and was sworn in as the Johnson County Circuit Court judge in 1979. The McKinneys had started a family by this time, with their first son, Josh, being born in 1976. "I was just so proud," McKinney said. "I just was thrilled." A second son, Andrew, followed in 1980.

Back in those days, state court rules permitted an automatic change of venue. McKinney was developing a reputation as a skilled trial judge, and many big firm lawyers in Indianapolis were eager to have him hear their cases, even though they risked a longer wait given McKinney's increasingly heavy caseload. McKinney estimated he had more than 100 jury trials in his first six years on the bench, in addition to handling countless guilty pleas, sentencing, divorces, child support modifications, and other court-related responsibilities. He did all his own research and writing; he had no law clerks or legal interns. "It was a very busy place to do business," McKinney remarked.

In 1987, President Ronald Regan nominated McKinney to be a U.S. district court judge.

In typical humble McKinney fashion, when he went to Washington, D.C., for his confirmation hearing, the trial court judge from Edinburg, Ind., didn't stay in a fancy hotel. Instead, he drove out in a trailer with his dad, wife, two kids, and his blind and diabetic dog and stayed at a KOA campground. "We had to give her shots every morning and every night, had to follow her around with a little pan to get her urine," McKinney said of his dog. "And then you'd dip the tester strip in the urine." When McKinney informed a member of one of the Indiana senator's staff that he was staying at the KOA campground she was "flabbergasted," McKinney remembered. "She said, 'I've never heard of anyone staying there.'"

Soon after his Senate confirmation, McKinney realized the power available to him at the federal court was significantly greater than what he had as a state court judge. One Friday afternoon a lawyer filed a request for a temporary restraining order involving a horse from Chile that was in Indiana for the Pan American Games. Remembering the moment, McKinney stated, "It dawned on me that instead of the power to throw somebody in jail for failure to pay child support, or sort out a family crisis by putting the children here or there, or to sort out other domestic relations issues, in one stroke of my pen, I could have brought the whole darn Pan American Games to a halt." Ultimately, McKinney did not grant the restraining order and interfere in the games. "Fortunately, I was able to rely on my judicial philosophy, which comes from the Dolly Parton school of jurisprudence, which is, 'Don't take my man just 'cause you can,'" McKinney joked.

For the next 30 years, McKinney handled high-stakes, complex cases. He once had a 10-defendant criminal court case involving gang activity that lasted three months. There were so many defendants and lawyers in his courtroom for that trial that he had risers erected to ensure adequate seating. "That was a very interesting case," McKinney noted, adding that there were excellent lawyers on both sides.

Excellent lawyers and case complexities also dominated his civil docket. Patent disputes were among the cases McKinney particularly enjoyed. Over the years, he handled cases involving the design of tennis shoes, oxygen tanks, and much more. McKinney's expertise in patent law earned him opportunities to travel to Argentina, Chile, China, and other countries to explain America's patent and legal system to foreign lawyers and judges. Though he found patent cases interesting, McKinney's affinity for such cases had a deeper origin. As McKinney explained it: "My dad has always been my mentor; and he told me once that in order to be successful in life, you had to learn to like what everybody else didn't like, which explains my affinity for patent law."

Through his many trials, McKinney earned a reputation among the bar as a "lawyer's judge" who had high expectations for lawyers but never took the law or himself too seriously. "I think it's part of the judge's role to set a tone of civility and set a tone of relaxation in that courtroom so lawyers can concentrate on the matters of representation instead of oppressive protocol," he stated. "The dispute resolution system constitutionally created as the third branch of government needs to be respected and protected by lawyers and judges alike. This is best done, in my view, in a relaxed courtroom."

McKinney did take seriously and respected his obligation to help others. In 2007, McKinney helped launch the first re-entry court in Indiana's federal system. The court was dubbed "REACH," which stands for Re-Entry and Community Help. The program is designed to assist high-risk offenders return to society following incarceration and reduce recidivism. "We need to be increasing our efforts to ensure that these people have every chance available to do what we've asked them to do, which is be a law-abiding citizen," McKinney said. Through the work of McKinney and others, the program doubled in size and added a second REACH court in 2017. One of the REACH court graduates is an individual that McKinney once sentenced to life in prison. After his sentence was reduced, he embraced the REACH court, served as a mentor to other REACH court participants, holds a steady job, and was moved to tears upon hearing of McKinney's passing.

McKinney's efforts to help others were not limited to the REACH program. McKinney's dedication to public service and civil education was exemplified by his commitment to the "We the People" program, an Indiana Bar Foundation program that educates middle school and high school students about the Constitution. McKinney spent countless hours judging and volunteering his time for this program. On a separate front, McKinney also worked tirelessly with others to ensure that a new federal courthouse was constructed in Terre Haute, Ind., when the lease agreement for the former courthouse location expired. Having a federal court presence in Terre Haute was important to McKinney, particularly given that there is a federal prison and a robust bankruptcy docket there. "Seemingly impossible obstacles were overcome" in getting a new Terre Haute courthouse built, McKinney observed.

In many ways, it seems impossible that McKinney is gone. But on Sept. 20, 2017, he suddenly was. Thankfully, his caring spirit, friendship, humor, and humility will live on in the countless people he touched. ☺

Judicial Profile Writers Wanted

The Federal Lawyer is looking to recruit current law clerks, former law clerks, and other attorneys who would be interested in writing a judicial profile of a federal judicial officer in your jurisdiction. A judicial profile is approximately 1,500–2,000 words and is usually accompanied by a formal portrait and, when possible, personal photographs of the judge. Judicial profiles do not follow a standard formula, but each profile usually addresses personal topics such as the judge's reasons for becoming a lawyer, his/her commitment to justice, how he/she has mentored lawyers and law clerks, etc. If you are interested in writing a judicial profile, we would like to hear from you. Please send an email to Zebbley Foster, Editorial and Production Specialist, at tfl@fedbar.org.

That is a crazy situation. Glad you weren't severely harmed.

It's probably beyond what I would be able to handle. I refer these cases to Johnson Jensen. Bob Johnson and Travis Jensen are good friends and excellent attorneys. Give them a call and see if they might be interested.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Turpin:

JT means the world to me, not just as a friend, but as an example of a human being I aspire to.

He is the most brilliant and driven person I have ever known. His sheer strength of will is inspiring, and his generosity immeasurable. I have never known a man to care as much as he does, so passionately that he seeks to help those around him to a fault.

I value his time and advice more than most. In fact, the only other person I have a higher opinion of is my own father. Whenever someone needs help, they turn to JT because he is a beacon of light in an uncaring and unforgiving world.

The unconditional love we have for each other has been expressed in our support for each other through good and bad times. We don't seek from each other; we drop everything and do for each other whatever is needed.

I know JT and I have had our disagreements, but we have worked through them like mature individuals and grown together as friends. Simply knowing JT has made me a better person. We have elevated each other and supported each other in many facets of life – careers, relationships, finance, and faith. These are the things you don't see.

I have learned two things about life from JT: success is what you make it, and stand up for what you believe in. He embodies these. In our 16 years of shared friendship, I have never seen him falter despite everything he has been subjected to. It would break a lesser man.

We have survived the death of a close friend together, faced our mortality together, and found common ground from which to weather any storm.

Unity is what bonds us. We are friends closer than brothers. Simply put, I would die for JT. I don't mean that in jest. I'd take a bullet for the man, give him a kidney, whatever it took. Why? Because if anyone deserves love and friendship and the chance in life to pursue it, it is JT.

I have seen through the brash, callous, stubborn, loud exterior of the young boy who latched onto me in 2005 during Spanish class. What I have found a decade and a half later was a true friend. I came to know him. Really KNOW him. I wouldn't trade a mountain of gold for his friendship.

All I ask is that you see him through my eyes.

Sincerely,

YORKTOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT

CASE REPORT

CASE# 2023-00005451

PO Box 518, 9312 W Smith St

Yorktown RI 02896

NARRATIVE

On June 24, 2023 at approximately 1:34 PM I (Officer William Curtis II) was dispatched to 2421 S Plum St., Yorktown, Indiana on a criminal mischief / vandalism call.

When I arrived, I spoke to the Complainant (CP) (Jon Frederick Turpin). Jon advised me someone has been tampering with his mail. He stated he has turned in an Agent that works for the CIA and he believes the CIA and the FBI are out to get him. The CP also advised he does not believe he has been getting all of his mail and wanted mt to go the Yorktown Post Office to see if they are holding his mail. Correction: Reported a Secret Service Agent.

The CP stated his vehicle had been vandalized on June 1st 2023. The CP said he drove his vehicle to Indianapolis; Indiana and he noticed his vehicle did not have any brakes. The CP believes someone had tampered with his vehicle. The CP advised he had the vehicle towed from Indianapolis to Hubler Ford in Muncie. Indiana. The CP did not have any information for his vehicle. I advised the CP as soon as he finds out the information on his vehicle to call me back and I will do a report for him.

At approximately 7:53 PM I was dispatched back to his residence for a criminal mischief report. I spoke to the CP and he advised he had the paperwork for his vehicle. The CP showed me an old registration and two titles with the vehicle information on it, The CP stated sometime in between May 28th 2023 and June 1st 2023 his vehicle was vandalized by an unknown suspect/s. The CP advised his 1985 black Ford Mustang was sitting in front of his residence during this time.

The CP stated that Todd Rokita had been informed, along with ISP, of potential tampering might have had something to do with his vehicle being ~~tampered with~~. The CP stated his suspension is loose and the repairs would cost in between approximately two thousand to four thousand dollars to repair it, the CP advised his seatbelt was taken off and the repairs for it would cost approximately fifty dollars, and the CP said his brakes went out ~~which would cost~~ approximately two thousand dollars to repair. as well, total cost

The CP stated Hubler Ford advised him he would need to take the vehicle back from where he purchased it to have it repaired. The CP advised me he purchased the vehicle in Illinois and he is waiting for a response from his insurance company about getting the vehicle towed to Illinois.

There is another, more recent report of a witness coming forward and confirming tampering to vehicle during December 2021.

Before this timeframe, but also in mid-June and until late June, especially after meeting with Agent Bell, I was followed by Private Investigators, even after each stop up the chain kept seemingly attempting to avoid any documented chain of custody of evidence... and I'm unsure why this was occurring to us as the original reporters of bad apples and their intolerable behaviors.

For reference, I attempted to turn all of this in, ~~in INVA~~ all the way up the chain, appropriately, with the cryptocurrency information attempted to be turned in to the FBI as well as the Secret Service in Norfolk, VA, and requested a meeting with Merrick Garland, without response, and a meeting with a pardon attorney without response. In mid-June 2023, after recognizing I was being surveilled at Direct Employers Association, while compiling information, but still performing my job duties. In my opinion under pressure since there had already been attempts to frame me and destroy evidence by bad apples, Hal Cooper referenced ~~the~~ vandalism investigations on my and our vehicles, partners gave hints about locations to travel to, and vandalism even occurred to my wife's vehicle in Seymour, IN, then Hal Cooper attempted to fake no knowledge of events despite documented information from Candee Chambers, and fired me for alleged misconduct after I met with Secret Service Agent Bell, while I was on vacation, losing our livelihoods and retirement.

Dear Mr. Turpin,

This week we received both the U.S. Mint coin of President Theodore Roosevelt and your handgun license in the mail. While the coin was a very thoughtful gift, we are unfortunately unable to accept. Indiana Code prevents state employees from accepting gifts or favors from their constituents.

Also enclosed is your State of Indiana license to carry handgun. We recommend you retain this document for your personal records. If you have any questions about the license, please contact the Firearms Division of the Indiana State Police at (317) 232-8264 with your questions.

Please let us know if we can be of assistance in the future.

Sincerely,

Constituent Services
Office of Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita

Apostolic Nunciature to the United States

Coordinates: 38°55′28″N 77°3′56″W﻿ / ﻿

The Apostolic Nunciature to the United States, sometimes referred to as the Vatican Embassy, is the diplomatic mission of the Holy See to the United States. It is located at 3339 Massachusetts Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D.C., in the Embassy Row neighborhood.^[1] Since 2016, the papal nuncio has been Archbishop Christophe Pierre.

The Apostolic Nunciature to the United States is an ecclesiastical office of the Catholic Church in the United States, with the rank of an embassy. The nuncio serves both as the ambassador of the Holy See to the government of the United States and as delegate and point-of-contact between the Catholic hierarchy in America and the pope.

The Apostolic Nunciature is an administrative center of the Catholic Church in the United States. Communications from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the various dioceses in the United States to the Holy See pass through the nunciature. The nuncio also fills a central role in the appointment of bishops in the U.S. and is the official responsible for announcing such appointments.

The physical building which houses the offices of the apostolic nuncio and his staff is called the Nunciature to the United States of America. It is exempt from the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese of Washington (canon 366 1°).

History

The Apostolic Delegation to the United States was established on January 24, 1893, with offices in Washington, D.C.; it was led by an apostolic delegate. The delegation was the result of an effort by the Holy See to establish communication between Pope Leo XIII and President Benjamin Harrison. An apostolic delegate is an ecclesiastical official, rather than a diplomat, who represents the Holy See to the Catholic Church in his host country. Because the delegate was not recognized by the U.S. government, the Holy See was not restricted in its choice of delegate, and there were periods when two delegates served at the same time.

The Holy See usually names a pro-nuncio rather than a delegate in anticipation of the establishment of diplomatic relations. Diplomatic relations between the U.S. and the Vatican were established on January 10, 1984,^[2] the result of the close friendship between Pope John Paul II and President Ronald Reagan, and the delegation was elevated to the rank of nunciature on January 11.^[3] The Holy See's representative continued to be titled pro-nuncio because at the time, the Vatican only gave the title of nuncio to its ambassadors who were deans of the diplomatic corps in their host country. In 1990 and 1991, the Vatican quietly began using the title of nuncio for all its newly appointed ambassadors who were not the deans of a country's diplomatic corps, though it retained the pro-nuncio title for all those already appointed.^[a]

At its establishment in 1893, the Apostolic Delegation occupied temporary quarters at the Catholic University of America, then from 1894 on a row of antebellum houses north of the United States Capitol. It moved in 1907 into a new home at 1811 Biltmore Street NW, designed for that purpose in 1905 by architect Albert Olszewski Von Herbulis (razed in 1973).^[4] The current site of the Apostolic Nunciature on Massachusetts Avenue was acquired

Additional Information

Please provide any standard information, and provide status of my current application.
Please provide information regarding status of FBI InfraGard and any other clearances.

Expedite

Expedite Reason

My appeal rights were prevented in a case with wrongful convictions in the past, and the current issues relate to that case, etc. et al, so in my opinion, I should have a fee waiver processed, however, I'm still willing to pay up to $250 for the searching, and/or expedited request.

In my opinion, I agree with our honorable John N. Kennedy that our esteemed FBI is the premier law enforcement agency in our nation, and I'm requesting the information for me.

If there is any useful information you may provide me in good faith efforts, I would appreciate this sincerely, and I'm attempting to ensure I enter this FOIA request also in good faith efforts.

Do they pay their invoices?
According to public reports, my bill to them was quite reasonable, and is currently in default.

B) The case was filed for an alleged petitioner who in their testimony has directly testified against having knowledge of a "family business" and in doing so, potentially denied the existence of the alleged victim, purportedly his wife, and attempted to reference and go against the already decided and entered cases of at least three superseding districts, and no less than 5 Honorable Judges decisions, even posthumous.

C) The alleged petitioner has admitted on record that I'm not abusive, don't touch anyone, and has attempted to tell the The Honorable Judge Drake that I "make stuff up" while his testimony regarding a school beating where he watched me be beaten on a floor, and didn't assist, nor anything to help me except enter a police report after being told his lack of action while claiming he was my friend was deeply concerning.

D) In my opinion, the attempt to tell the Honorable Judge Drake that I "make stuff up" aligns with an attempt to falsely diagnose me as Bipolar, which the alleged petitioner, who has given up his 5th amendment rights, by entering evidence in court that no one else could have since he wasn't responded to after his two texts, and I already had him blocked even if he was messaging me.

E) In my opinion, the testimony from the alleged petitioner against the alleged victim would even violate, if they are married, marital communications privilege.

F) In my opinion, the way this case was filed prevents the alleged victim and alleged petitioner from receiving any civil relief at all since it was entered by falsely accessing information, and hidden under seal, also without any legal grounds, proven in confirmed pattern by the Honorable Judge Drake reaffirming the Honorable Judge Stoner's opinion to expunge a prior case by the Marion County Superior Court.

G) Importantly, in that prior case, each the defense and prosecution, and the judge, showed in actions my right to self defense, retained my right to appeal, retained my 2nd amendment rights and lifetime gun permit, and followed the immunity clause in Indiana's Self Defense laws for protecting another person in doing so in actions.

H) The alleged victim is not a law enforcement officer and left the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department allegedly after going against her chain of command.

I) The alleged victim is not a therapist, and had to be reported out of genuine concern for attempting to offer schedule 2 substances to myself in line with attempts to falsely interdict me, and only to protect the alleged victim and the alleged petitioner themselves against their own irresponsible actions and their own marital issues.

J) In my opinion, these issues belong between them, and their priest if they are Catholic, have nothing to do with us, just as I told them before cutting off contact months and months ago when their actions, along with the actions of the irresponsible plaintiffs referenced in the "School Lawsuit" which is otherwise irrelevant to this case, except to say that each of the parties have attempted to stop our marriage.

K) Even now to the point of contacting our priest, and filing a court case so irresponsible and causing a swath of destruction so severe that even law enforcement, medical professionals, the EEOC, and honorable judges in the 5th District Court of Louisiana have suggested and accepted we civilly sue them, because they may be completely incapable of controlling themselves, yet are seemingly "control freaks."

to me

Notably, in my opinion, I was even denied transfer back to Louisiana without notice, for my remote job, after discovering and ^{then} filing appropriately in the correlated case.

The alleged petitioner's testimony in court went against his own words, which, during a time which Facebook was being monitored and free speech was being violated on a scale so vast it required an injunction upon the Federal Government... may have allowed the alleged petitioner to access an expunged case fraudulently by attempting to falsely label me as a gun-violent, bipolar threat to society.

The alleged petitioner's words were potentially so defamatory that others reached out to me in genuine concern that these allegations did not fit my character at all:

Hey love. I know it's late, but I wanted to let you know I read those screenshots that you sent to Michael. I am still so sorry for everything you are going through. We are here to support you, but please be very cautious with using my name in a conversation. The reason I say this is if this were to escalate to a court case (which hopefully it does not), my name brought into it can slow me down/prevent me from getting my license (since I do not have it yet). Sadly, the licensure process slows dramatically if your name gets associated with a case (as a lot of background checks are run throughout this process).

The officer informed your parents many disputing families are currently trying to use protective/restraining orders as a way "attack" another family member when the actual qualifications for a restraining/ protective order have NOT been met.

As a result, improperly requesting a restraining/ protective order sadly clogs up the court systems and prevents those who truly need one from obtaining it quickly. As a result, the judges want the requests for restraining/protective orders to be used when needed (which is there intended purpose), NOT simply for acting vengeance against a family member, such as trying to file a restraining order/protective order against a family member first when qualifications have not been met.

To sum it up, protective/restraining orders should only be used when absolutely necessary, and having frivolous ones filed is not good since slows it down the process for those who truly need it.

2. The case was filed under seal, by an attorney with a criminal background and record of wrongfully filing cases under seal, in a county which has no jurisdiction, during a time in our country when the president himself, our Honorable Joseph R. Biden, Jr., and even other members of the executive branch are not currently allowed to even have potential pseudonyms on emails under seal. Since the only possible confidential information in this case was my expungement or anything else the alleged victim and alleged petitioner may attempt to access, why is it still under seal? I've attached the letters referencing my character which were supplied for my expungement to show opinions of others, but the alleged victim, alleged petitioner, and their alleged attorney should have no access to this information because witnesses are concerned after the actions of the alleged petitioner and alleged victim along with the original irresponsible plaintiffs in the "School Lawsuit" case, which is outside of this jurisdiction and already being reviewed to be closed in its entirety with prejudice by a superseding court.

IN RE: Ronald J. MOORE. (2001)

IN RE: Ronald J. MOORE.

No. 89S00-0105-DI-230.

Decided: October 17, 2001

Ronald E. Elberger, Bose, McKinney & Evans, L.L.P., Indianapolis, IN, for the Respondent.

Donald R. Lundberg, Executive Secretary, Laura Iosue, Staff Attorney, Indianapolis, IN, for the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Attorney Ronald J. Moore retained for personal use nearly $20,000 in legal fees in contravention of an agreement which required him to remit such fees to his law firm. To conceal his misconduct, he lied about the fees to other attorneys in the firm. Today we approve a Statement of Circumstances and Conditional Agreement for Discipline between the respondent and the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, which calls for his suspension from the practice of law for this misconduct. See Ind. Admission and Discipline Rule 23, Section 11.

Having been admitted to the bar of this state in 1997, the respondent is subject to our disciplinary jurisdiction.

The facts are undisputed. Two months after graduating from law school in 1997, the respondent was hired as an associate lawyer by a Richmond, Indiana, law firm. The firm and the respondent agreed that the respondent would be paid a salary, that all legal work he performed would be as an agent of the firm, and that all fees he earned would belong to the firm. The respondent's salary was $600 per week from August 4, 1997, until his bar admission on November 3, 1997; $800 per week from November 4, 1997, through December 31, 1998; $900 per week for the 1999 calendar year, with a $4,000 year-end bonus; and $1,000 per week for the 2000 calendar year.

For about 18 months, the respondent's duties at the firm included handling criminal appeals as an appellate public defender for Wayne County. During the course of the public defender contract, the respondent received $11,900 from Wayne County in checks made payable to him. The respondent deposited the checks into his personal bank account and never remitted any of those fees to the firm. At least twice in 1999, members of the firm confronted the respondent about the absence of fees from his public defender work. The respondent told them that he had not been paid yet by Wayne County. By April 2000, members of the firm became so suspicious of the respondent's assertions that they contacted the Wayne County Auditor's Office. They discovered that the respondent had been receiving payments for the public defender work for approximately 18 months. On April 13, 2000, members of the firm confronted the respondent with this information. He admitted he had retained the money. He also disclosed that he had represented clients charged with drunk driving, charged each $750 for the representation, and deposited all of the fees into his personal bank account, instead of turning them over to the firm as he was required. To avoid detection, the respondent did not enter these cases into the firm's case management system and required the clients pay him directly. The fees improperly retained by the respondent from the public defender contract and from the ten drunk driving clients totaled $19,400.

We find that, by his theft of funds that pursuant to agreement belonged to the law firm, the respondent violated Ind. Professional Conduct Rule 8.4(b), which provides that an attorney commits professional misconduct when engaging in a criminal act that reflects adversely on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer in other respects. We also find that by lying to his colleagues about those fees, the respondent violated Prof.Cond.R. 8.4(c), which provides that a lawyer commits professional misconduct when engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation.

Given our finding of misconduct, we must determine an appropriate discipline. The parties agree that an 18-month suspension from the practice of law is warranted. In determining appropriate discipline, we consider the misconduct, the respondent's state of mind underlying the misconduct, the duty of this court to preserve the integrity of the profession, the risk to the public in allowing the respondent to continue in practice, and any mitigating or aggravating factors. Matter of Mears, 723 N.E.2d 873 (Ind.2000).

In mitigation, the parties agree that the respondent paid the firm $20,000, which included the fees he wrongfully retained plus interest, within one month after his wrongdoing was discovered and before any disciplinary investigation was pending. The respondent underwent counseling and has satisfied the personal financial obligations which contributed to his decision to commit the misconduct. Joined by members of his firm, the respondent voluntarily reported his misconduct to the Disciplinary Commission. He also has met individually with the judges in Wayne County and with members of the Wayne County Bar Association to admit his misconduct.

In aggravation, the parties note the respondent planned his conversion of funds and perpetuated this scheme for at least 18 months by lying about it on two occasions when members of the firm confronted him. The parties further agree the respondent's actions demonstrate a pattern of misconduct both in terms of the types of funds he converted-both public defender contract checks and funds from ten clients-and in the repetitive nature of his actions. The parties also note the respondent's actions were motivated by personal financial stress and occurred shortly after he graduated from law school when he was earning from $41,600 to $52,000 annually.

In a similar case, we suspended an attorney who retained fees belonging to the attorney's firm. Matter of Miller, 730 N.E.2d 171 (Ind.2000). Given the respondent's carefully planned and executed deception in this case, we conclude that the agreed suspension is appropriate.

Accordingly, the respondent, Ronald J. Moore, is hereby suspended from the practice of law for not fewer than eighteen (18) months, beginning November 19, 2001, at the conclusion of which he shall be eligible to petition for reinstatement pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(4).

The Clerk of this Court is directed to provide notice of this order in accordance with Admis.Disc.R. 23(3)(d) and to provide the Clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, the Clerk of each of the United States District Courts in this state, and the Clerk of each of the United States Bankruptcy Courts in this state with the last known address of the respondent as reflected in the records of the Clerk.

Costs of this proceeding are assessed against the respondent.

PER CURIAM.

3. The case filed by the alleged plaintiffs is currently against against T.R. 41, with the following potential violations highlighted in BOLD:

Rule 41 - Dismissal of actions(A) Voluntary dismissal: Effect thereof(1)By plaintiff - By stipulation. Subject to contrary provisions of these rules or of any statute, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court: (a) by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion for summary judgment, whichever first occurs; or (b) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court of the United States or of any state an action based on or including the same claim. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply if the plaintiff in such action could not effectuate service of process, or otherwise procure adjudication on the merits.

(2)By order of court. Except as provided in subsection (1) of this subdivision of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim or cross-claim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim or cross-claim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this subsection is without prejudice.(B) Involuntary dismissal: Effect thereof. After the plaintiff or party with the burden of proof upon an issue, in an action tried by the court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence thereon, the opposing party, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the weight of the evidence and the law there has been shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff or party with the burden of proof, the court, when requested at the time of the motion by either party shall make findings if, and as required by Rule 52(A). Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision or subdivision (E) of this rule and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(C) Dismissal of counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to subsection (1) of subdivision (A) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

(D) Costs of previously-dismissed action. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

(E) Failure to prosecute civil actions or comply with rules. Whenever there has been a failure to comply with these rules or when no action has been taken in a civil case for a period of sixty [60] days, the court, on motion of a party or on its own motion shall order a hearing for the purpose of dismissing such case. The court shall enter an order of dismissal at plaintiff's costs if the plaintiff shall not show sufficient cause at or before such hearing. Dismissal may be withheld or reinstatement of dismissal may be made subject to the condition that the plaintiff comply with these rules and diligently prosecute the action and upon such terms that the court in its discretion determines to be necessary to assure such diligent prosecution.

(F) Reinstatement following dismissal. For good cause shown and within a reasonable time the court may set aside a dismissal without prejudice. A dismissal with prejudice may be set aside by the court for the grounds and in accordance with the provisions of Rule 60(B).

CASE NO. 3:22-CV-01213 LI

VERSUS

JUDGE TERRY A. DOUGHTY

JOSEPH R BIDEN JR ET AL

MAG. JUDGE KAYLA D. M

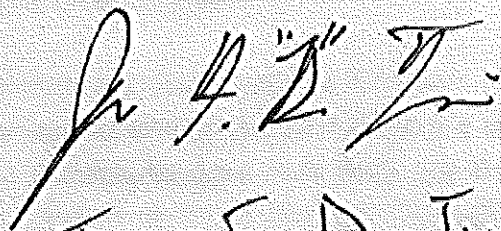

Dear Honorable Judge Doughty and Honorable
In my opinion, the proceedings in 89COIhave no legal grounds as the case have been filed in a way which cause immunity by the Honorable Judge Drake the only potential grounds available for to potentially be filed, which, even if in full, according to the actions of the Judge Skoner, affirmed in actions by Judge Drake, in my opinion would be. With submission of these notarized documents the case having no legal grounds under filed, and it being past 60 days and jurisdiction where it was filed under my opinion, it should be closed in our favor. with

In my opinion, the case was filed in away the only possible conclusion is that it was a to falsely, fictitiously, and fraudulently, violate our civil, religious rights and rites, and an attempt to our Catholic Marriage and vows under God and In my opinion, none of this fraudulently attempted

Violation, it is in the jurisdiction of the Wayne County Court, and with the accepted postponement, the will already be half past the offered and denied causing a situation where even if the case "served" would already negate the possible reversal.

In my opinion if you request the transcript case, you may review if the alleged petitioner against the alleged victim, negating potentially case in our favor at 100%.
